Spectacular parade Sunday afternoon at VFW-firemen's festival

The parade Sunday afternoon sponsored by Arlington Heights Post No. 981 and the Arlington Fire Department promises to be spectacular. Acceptances have come from 18 drum and bugle corps. The army recruiting service will also participate with a loud speaker and two staff cars in the parade. Sheriff Walsh has detailed County Highway Police to head the parade.

With 18 drum and bugle corps in the parade, all organizations participating will be headed by martial music. The fire departments of Lake Zurich, Half Day, Mt. Prospect and Long Grove will bring up the rear of the marching column, followed by visiting firemen from other towns.

S. Greschner is parade marshal, assisted by F. Moskal, Geo. Svetonoff and Chief Skoog. All groups will form at one p. m. at the high school grounds, forming in the order specified in the adjoining column. An aerial bomb at one o'clock will signify it is time to enter formation; two aerial bombs at 1:45 "to get ready," and at 2 o'clock sharp seven aerial bombs will mean the signal to step-off.

The parade, starting from Ridge and Euclid, will proceed east to Walnut, south to Fremont, east to State road, south to Miner, east to Belmont, south to Campbell, east to the park.

Alderman sees sales tax as only way to meet rising village costs

Alderman Franke, chairman of the finance committee of the village board Monday night that an effort be made to learn how much a one-half percent sales tax would add to the municipal revenue. He did not advocate at this time the adoption of that plan to meet the rising municipal costs, but such a move might enable the village to reduce its property tax, and thereby automatically force present non-taxpayers to pay something toward municipal operation.

Nine year old girl hit by car driven by 13 year old boy

Gail O'Donnell, age 9, of Mayfair road, Scarsdale, Arlington Heights, was struck by an automobile driven by a thirteen year old boy Monday while she and her companion were riding their bicycles. The accident occurred near her home at 5:30 in the afternoon, shortly after which she was taken by ambulance to the Evanston hospital.

Gail's head and knee were badly injured, a tooth was chipped, and her tongue and upper lip were cut through.

News story saves Arlington man from arrest

Harry Siegel, of Home Milk, Arlington Heights, was kept out of jail Tuesday by a story that appeared in Paddock Publications July 11.

The reviewing stand will be on State Road between Eastman and Fremont street, at the North school, where the judges will make their decision. They will be Dr. Mach, DDS, a member of National Association Drum and Bugle Corps, band masters and others.

Dancing Saturday, Sunday

Wally Hahnfeldt will furnish the music for the dancing Saturday night and Dan O'Neil and his quintet of popular music, on Sunday night.

The Ford car will be awarded at midnight July 27.

Special entertainment

Program on Thursday will have the comedy band antics of Al, Ralph and Louie, an act composed of Arlington Heights residents, and the professional act, "The Ballantines," harmonica duo. Friday's stage program will feature Terry Ray who will perform in an unsupported ladder act. Naomi Cook, Arlington Heights dramatic soprano associated with the Chicago Opera company, will lead community singing.

Saturday program will have the Palatine German band and the German comic band of the village's V. F. W. post. Professional performances of acrobatics and dancing will be given by the Danwill Brothers and Charlene.

right to collect the tax after a favorable referendum has been held. Under the law, the state would collect 2½% sales tax, returning to the village its share minus a service fee.

Alderman Franke made the suggestion when the board considered the call of a special election to vote on a bond issue to purchase a new fire truck. "In place of calling possibly two elections, let us find out if we want to present the sales tax referendum to the voters at the same time they will vote on the additional fire department equipment," said Mr. Franke.

Special election soon

A call for a special election to authorize the issuance of bonds to purchase the fire truck will not be made until the fire department is able to secure figures on the cost of the truck and the cost of remodeling quarters in the village hall for the accommodation of the equipment.

Street extensions

Attorney Hugo J. Thal was instructed Monday night to contact property owners relative to opening of two streets which in turn will make available considerable choice building lots. The streets are North Belmont, between Fredrick and Thomas and West Wing Street, between Salem and Kenicott. The streets would have to be donated by the owners for street purposes.

Speeding motorist crashes garbage truck in Prospect Heights

Another speeding motorist, literally flying through the business district of Prospect Heights on Ill. highway 83 crashed at the corner of Elmhurst road and Clarendon avenue late Tuesday afternoon, July 15. This time the flying vehicle which according to eye witnesses, was traveling about 60 miles per hour crashed into the garbage truck, operated by Adolph Rateike. Both car and truck were badly damaged.

Rateike's truck had been parked on the side of the road with but two of its wheels partially on the highway. Rateike was not on the truck at the time but was engaged in removing garbage from the rear of an Elmhurst road home.

Eye witnesses reported that the fast flying car driven by Lewis Vocke, Jr., of Round Lake, was traveling north, and that both lanes of the highway were clear of traffic. Vocke's car bore no license plates and at the scene of the accident he reported that he had no insurance. Rateike's truck was fully insured.

Although Rateike's truck was badly damaged his service to residents has continued with hired equipment following the usual pattern of two pick-ups a week.

Start widening of Route 83 through Mount Prospect

The village of Mt. Prospect does not want Route 83 to permanently be routed through that village, but construction work has started on a widening project of Elmhurst road from Route 58 to the Northwest Highway, which is at present used as Route 83.

Milburn Bros., who have the contract, are now putting in additional house services and catch basins along the route within the village. Widening from Central road to Rand road will come later.

Proposed street widening cost is $15,000

Arlington Heights village board received Monday night estimates of $15,000 as the cost of widening south Dunton street to Sigwalt street and widening Davis street along the north side of the village hall. The estimate of the engineers was for the combined jobs. An additional 10% would be added to the cost of either, $5,100 or $9,900 if one of the projects is dropped.

The engineers stated that three months would elapse before the jobs would be ready for letting and that construction would take an additional month.

The village board took no action Monday night, other than to appoint a committee of three to contact the local park district and the Northwestern railroad relative to using all of the area north of the municipal building to the railroad tracks for parking purposes. Alderman Hartman gave the suggestion that if the present north curb is removed and the rest of the land is properly prepared for parking purposes there would be no need to spend $5,100 for paving a few feet to accommodate the fire trucks. Alderman Hartman, Kehe and Franke were appointed as the committee, to consider the suggestion of Hartman.

Award contract

The bid of Arlington Elevator & Coal of $1,401.84 for gravel with which to make road repairs was accepted. A bid of $4,513.32 for building material for the roads had previously been accepted.

On recommendation of the village engineers the sewers and water main extension placed in Laurinwood were accepted by the village. Bills and payroll passed for payment totaled $4,928.28.

New truck for streets

Alderman Hartman, Kehe and Supt. Becker were appointed as a committee to prepare specifications for a new street truck. The appropriation, ordinances contains an item of $6,000 for such a purpose.

4-H festival plans well under way

Committees from the Chamber of Commerce, Farm and Home Bureaus are working diligently making final arrangements for the 4-H Club festival to be held in Arlington Heights Recreation Park August 22 and 23.

Judging of livestock will start at 9:00 a.m. Friday, August 22, with Mr. John Brock of the Northern Illinois Dairy Breeders Association acting as judge. Most of the day will be devoted to judging the various entries and exhibits.

Realizing that most people have little or no idea of what a dairy cow should produce, a unique guessing contest will be offered as one of the added attractions of the 4-H Club show. One of the cows from the Dairy Herd Improvement Association will be on exhibit and everyone visiting the fair will have the opportunity to submit three guesses based on the record that she has made during the past year, the pounds of milk produced during the past year; second, the cost of feed during the same period and third, the profit made for her owner in the value of milk sold over the cost of feed. Prizes will be awarded to the persons submitting the nearest estimates to the correct amounts and the announcement of winners will be made at the close of the festival, 4:00 p.m. Saturday, August 23.

Baseball tournament

The 4-H baseball tournament will get under way Friday afternoon. At 8:00 in the evening a special entertainment program will be held, featuring WLS artists, Rural Youth square dancing exhibition, a musical, "The Great Faust," cowboy singing and an orchestra.

Saturday morning the 4-H baseball tournament will be concluded, the winning team playing south Cook county for championship the following week. In the afternoon WLS artists will again entertain the crowd and the pig and chicken races, including livestock and home economics, will be open for inspection. At 3:00 o'clock p. m. the parade of champions, winners in the 4-H Agricultural Exhibits and the girls style review, will be held at the grandstand. All are invited to attend the dance and farmers ball in the field house at 9:00 p. m. which brings this festival to a close.

The Public Service Company, Stephen Electric Service, Schimming Oil Company, Jewel Tea Company, Ford-Ferguson Tractors and Rhode Repair shop have been added to the businessmen's section of the 4-H Club Exposition and many attractive and interesting displays have been planned.

A "Buyers Guide" is to be mailed out to farmers in North Cook county shortly before the fair. The public, farmers and townspeople are urged to keep the dates of August 22 and 23 in mind for this important event.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The St. Peter Lutheran Dorcas Aid of Arlington Heights will have on sale cakes, pies and cookies, with brown crusted bread and the usual bakery sale items on Saturday, July 26, at the Public Service store. The sale begins at 1 o'clock.

Richard H. Jahn, a member of Arlington Heights fire department 39 years and its chief over seven years, has reached the retiring age of 60 years. He presented his resignation to the village board Monday evening.

Mayor Goedke, in accepting the resignation, expressed the appreciation of the community over the loyal service Mr. Jahn has given.

Mr. Jahn is the oldest fireman in number of years of service. He joined the department August 17, 1908, and served as a "private" 25 years. He was appointed captain of hose company January 20, 1933, and assistant chief March 15, 1935. With the resignation of Geo. K. Volz as fire chief in 1939, Richard became head of the department.

Prior to his appointment as a captain he had served as secretary and treasurer four years.

Acts as instructor

The term of the retiring chief extended through the World War II years. At the request of the government, he organized the auxiliary firemen and after taking an instructor's course in fighting air raids and other contingencies of war time, acted as an instructor of air wardens as well as the auxiliary firemen.

Mr. Jahn took courses and made a special study of fire fighting and under his leadership the local department gained a reputation for efficiency.

Hand drawn equipment

When Mr. Jahn joined the department the equipment was hand drawn and included a hose reel and a hook and ladder truck. The water works system had been in operation just three years. The first automotive fire engine was not purchased until 1917.

Mr. Jahn has personally answered many non-alarm calls. He was always ready to leave his work for a chimney fire or a prairie blaze. His practice of answering such calls personally in place of calling out the entire department has saved the village a lot of money.

Except the past seven months, Mr. Jahn has spent his entire time in Arlington, subject to call 24 hours a day. Business men and home owners, in case of a fire, had confidence in Dick's ability to do the right thing in the quickest possible time. He retires with the best wishes of a grateful community.

Lutheran centennial meet closes Tuesday

Inspiring sessions; delegates from many foreign countries

The Centennial Convention of the Lutheran Church of the Missouri Synod is being held this week at the Palmer House in Chicago. Dr. John Behnke, of Oak Park, who is president of the church, has been reelected for another three-year term of office.

Other officers elected by the convention include Rev. H. Harms, Davenport, Iowa; Rev. A. Brunn, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Rev. F. Hertwig, Detroit, all of whom were elected vice presidents. Other officers and committees will be elected this week.

Essays are being read at the convention by Dr. Wm. Dallmann of Oak Park and Prof. A. O. Fuerbringer of Seward, Neb. These essays discuss matters of Christian doctrine.

The volume of business before the church convention may be estimated by the fact that the book of reports and overtures comprises more than 500 pages, covering every conceivable branch of church activity.

Nearly 1,000 delegates and visitors from all parts of the country and from several foreign lands are in attendance. Brief addresses have been made to the convention by heads of Lutheran churches in South America, Australia, Germany, Finland and Africa. The Lutheran church of the Missouri Synod now consists of 1,600,000 members in this country alone.

Service at Soldier Field

Sunday afternoon, July 27, there will be a mammoth service at Soldier Field at 3 p. m., at which over 100,000 persons are

Pick Elroy Winkelman as new fire chief

Elroy J. Winkelman has been appointed chief of Arlington Heights Fire Department, the office made vacant by the retirement of Richard H. Jahn. The appointment was made by the village board Monday evening.

Mr. Winkelman has been a member of the department 20 years. He joined it in 1927, was appointed a lieutenant in 1938 and a captain a few years later.

The appointment rewards Elroy for many years faithful service. His mechanical knowledge has frequently been an aid to the department and he has attended a number of fire schools and meetings of the state association. The importance of Arlington Heights fire department has grown with the town. It is essentially important that the fire chief be conveniently located and available 24 hours a day. Mr. Winkelman is within a few blocks of the fire house day and night and is in a position to answer any and all calls on a minute's notice.

His judgment is respected by fellow firemen and under his leadership the retiring chief has confidence that he is leaving a capable man in charge.

Arlington to oppose C & N W fare increase

Attorney Hugo J. Thal was instructed Monday night to make an appearance before the Illinois Commerce commission, on September 9 when hearings will be started on the petition of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. for increased passenger fares in Chicago suburban area. Mr. Thal will oppose the increase.

Displays feature church branches

The exhibition hall of the Palmer House is filled with numerous striking displays depicting the far-flung work of the activities of the Lutheran Hour, the American Lutheran Publicity Bureau, the Concordia Historical Institute, the various educational institutions of the church, the Deaconess Association, the parochial schools, Walther League, Student Service Commission, Aid Association for Lutherans and many Lutheran charities.

At the sessions Tuesday afternoon the convention voted to establish a full college for the training of ministers, thus extending the training period for the clergy by one year.

Some of the important matters to be decided by the convention include the selection of a new name for the Synod, the question of membership in National Lutheran Council, conduct of foreign missions in new areas, the matter of coeducation in synodical colleges and the problem of erecting numerous new buildings on the various college campuses of the church.

On Wednesday night the delegates and visitors to the convention heard a brilliant choral concert presented by a choir of 65 selected Chicago voices. Friday night there will be a pastoral service at First St. Paul's Lutheran church where the Missouri Synod was organized exactly 100 years ago.

Service at Soldier Field

Sunday afternoon, July 27, there will be a mammoth service at Soldier Field at 3 p. m., at which over 100,000 persons are

Building Slated To Be Ready For Occupancy For Fall Term Sept. 2

The new addition to Arlington Heights high school for use of the vocational departments will be ready when sessions open September 2. This department is to be housed in the northern section of the addition that is now under construction. Much of the machinery that was purchased from the government will be housed therein. A special feature will be a small greenhouse.

Police capture bandits who robbed Palatine station

A Lake county juvenile gang, members of which have been stealing cars and robbing gas stations, has been broken up. Eddie Cooper, night attendant at Curry's gas station on Northwest highway, Palatine, was called to Chicago Sunday to attend a police "show up." He identified John Robert Bailey, 17, Rte. 3, Waukegan, and Senius Hill, 17, of 2706 Elm ave., Zion, as two of the boys who entered his station July 10 and took $55 from the cash register.

Bailey admitted to the police that the series of crimes had netted him only $100. Other Lake county youths implicated are Perry Joseph, 16, Zion, and Tommy Volmar, 17, Waukegan. The above four were taken into custody by Waukegan police who turned them over to Chicago police which were able to clear up several robberies. Also included in the gang were Albert Downing, 21, Los Angeles, Calif., and his bride, Mary, 21, who had been married two weeks and had only 17 cents when arrested.

Others are Donald Conner, 19, and Glenn Miller, 17, Zion, Chicago. Municipal Judge Jos. B. Hermes set bonds totaling $135,000.

Northbrook makes capture

Credit for the capture of Bailey and Joseph goes to Officer Antonson of the Northbrook police, who chased the two boys five miles through various village streets. The officer received a radio call of a stolen car at 7:48 Wednesday evening, July 16. He recognized the auto, and, sounding his police siren, started after the car.

Northbrook had a replica of an old time western movie the next few minutes until the bandits left town, heading down Sherman ave., only to be captured at its dead end at the Naval Air Station. Northbrook police turned the boys over to the Waukegan police.

Zoning board ties strings to ok of zoning changes

Arlington Heights Zoning Board of Appeals gave their ok Friday night to two applications for rezoning, but tied strings to the permits. Their recommendations were presented to the village board Monday night who took both matters under advisement, at the suggestion of Attorney Thal.

The property at 311 N. Dunton is rezoned to commercial providing that no structural changes be made in the building now on the site and that the commercial purpose for which it is to be used is limited to a beauty parlor.

Double occupancy homes

Double apartment occupancy will be possible on homes to be built on lots 1 to 17 block 1 of Cepek's Arlington Ridge subdivision. The lots face Ridge avenue between Oakton and Willow.

The recommendation of the rezoning made by the zoning board of appeals, reads in part as follows: "It is agreed by general consent that there is a definite need for buildings of this proposed type." Land owned by the objectors to the change have not erected any homes.

The restrictions tied to the approval, by the appeal board are that the exterior of all homes built must have the exterior appearance of a single occupancy home; also that plans on any buildings to be erected on them must carry the approval of the zoning board of appeals.

Dismiss foreclosure suit on eleven lots

Superior Judge U. S. Schwartz Tuesday vacated a decree of sale entered June 27 in a special assessment foreclosure suit by the Village of Arlington Heights on the motion of Village Attorney Hugo J. Thal. He then, also on Thal's motion, entered a separate order dismissing the suit as to eleven lots in Blocks 8, 9, 11, and 12 of Mitchell's Addition to Arlington Heights.

Guest speaker at St. Peter Lutheran church

The Rev. Dr. Curtis C. Stephan, pastor of University Lutheran Church, Bloomington, Indiana, and brother of Pastor L. V. Stephan, will deliver the sermons in both languages at the Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church next Sunday morning at the customary hours. Serving as a delegate to the Delegate Synod in Chicago, Pastor Curtis Stephan will attend the sessions in the Palmer House from July 20 to 29.

Another brother of the local Lutheran minister, the Rev. Paul G. Stephan of Pueblo, Colorado, delivered the confessional address in St. Peter church last Sunday evening and assisted his brother in the celebration of Holy Communion. On vacation, he will attend sessions of the Centennial Convention of the Mo. Synod in Chicago.

Two teachers resign

The business world is competing with educational institutions and Arlington Heights is losing John Hookom, who taught physics and general science last year. He is entering the insurance field.

A second resignation is that of Clarence Iba, basketball coach, who has accepted a position with the Muskege, Oklahoma high school. Athletic receipts in high schools in the west reach such proportions that such schools can outbid high schools of this area.

Experienced matron

The school is fortunate in securing an experienced school matron. Mrs. Pearl Sutter, 618 South Highland, who has accepted such a position served two years as matron of Talcott hall, Oberlin college.

Mrs. L. J. Knoepel, wife of the school principal, is spending several days in Arlington Heights this week, preparatory to moving here next month. They will occupy the principal's residence now owned by the school.

Preserve Scissors
 Scissors and shears can be best protected from rough knocks by hanging them up or keeping them in a box. In damp weather they may need to be protected against rust by wrapping in waxed paper. Oiling, too, is necessary every six months or so. After putting a drop of sewing machine oil on both sides of the screw that holds the blades together and working the blades back and forth, the excess oil should be wiped off. If rust or dark spots appear, these can be removed by rubbing with sandpaper or steel wool; a little oil should be put on these places afterwards.

Lake Forest woman gets Chevrolet at Wheeling Days fete

Neither cool weather or a series of flowers could keep the crowds away from the 20th Annual Wheeling Day celebration which closed at midnight Sunday. On Saturday evening folks came early and stayed late to enjoy the games and rides and take home many fine prizes.

Activities on Sunday began with the program of children's races which go under way at 3:30 p. m. with over 100 children competing. The races were interrupted by the first of a series of three heavy showers. The sack race, shoe race and pie eating contest were put on between showers, and for the "pie-eaters," a shower was almost a must. The last shower came at 7:30 and continued until about 8 when the sun broke through, and a beautiful rainbow gave promise of a clear evening.

For those who did not take shelter in the booths or their cars, there was plenty of room in the gymnasium. As the skies cleared the crowds began arriving to surpass the attendance of Saturday evening. An innovation in the Advertising-Registration booth was the presenting of 7 prizes every hour beginning at 7 p. m. on Sunday, with the balance of the many prizes in the booth being given away at midnight. The special prizes in this booth were two bicycles donated by the sponsoring organizations, the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce and the Wheeling Volunteer Fire Dept., which were won by William Laurence of Wheeling and David Lemke of Des Plaines.

As seems to be the custom in Wheeling, all of the grand prizes went to out of town friends, with the exception of the last one. The lucky persons were Erna Baker of Lake Forest, who received the 1947 Fleetline 4-door Chevrolet Sedan, Kenneth Wick of Highland Park the Gas Range, A. F. Rentsch the electric washer, Carl Rennack of Palatine the outboard motor and Merle Willis of Wheeling the floor lamp.

After months of planning and many days of hard work in preparation for the event, it is with a great deal of satisfaction that the sponsoring organizations record another successful year. Henry Grandt, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Edward Gieseke, Jr., fire chief, expressed their appreciation for all who worked toward this success, especially to those volunteers who are not members of either organization, as well as the many patrons.

Engagement
 The engagement was announced this week of Miss Florence Wolter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wolter of Bensenville to Vernon Anderson, son of Ivar Anderson, Arlington Heights.

E. H. Deikes
have double celebration

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Deike who were married fifty years ago, July 22, 1897 had a double celebration of their anniversary Tuesday.

They prepared for an open house that was held during the afternoon in the home in which they had resided their entire wedding life. They knew nothing about the evening celebration at Elk Grove Inn that had been arranged by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kastning and their grandson, Erwin.

Over a hundred friends and relatives called during the afternoon extending their congratulations. Among the callers were H. H. Franzen, president of the Itasca State Bank and the entire bank personnel. Mr. Franzen gave a short talk to the honored couple. Mr. Deike has been a member of the board of directors of that bank 31 years.

An even greater crowd attended the evening festivities at Elk Grove Inn, where young and old, including Mr. and Mrs. Deike enjoyed dancing to good music and the refreshments that were served at midnight.

Nephews and nieces came from places as far off as Milwaukee, Wis. and Fairbault, Minn. Also present were Mrs. Deike's brother, Herman Winkelhake and her two sisters, Mrs. Herman Troyke and Mrs. Henry Rohde, who were present at the original wedding, two of whom were in the wedding party of 1897.

When Mr. Deike married he purchased from Fred Nebel the creamery which he continued 14 years. With the advent of the automobile and the demand for fluid milk in Chicago, Mr. Deike closed his creamery but has continued his store, on the exclusive to neighboring farmers.

"Fifty years ago, I helped H. C. Paddock get his first subscribers here," says Mr. Deike, "and still am a booster for Paddock's papers although they are now printed by my friend's sons and grandsons."

Girls can still go to Girl Scout camp

There are still a few openings at the Camp Hickory Hill Girl Scout camp at Edgerton, Wisconsin during the fourth session, August 4-17, and the one week session, August 11-17. Anyone interested in attending should write to Mrs. A. F. Longren, 768 Center street, Des Plaines, to make arrangements.

Pick queen at class reunion at high school

Last Saturday evening the classes of '44 and '45 held a class reunion at their old stamping ground, the Arlington Heights Township high school. Held in the form of a dance, the reunion brought out school chums held in obscurity since graduation two or three years ago.

Many old friendships were renewed and new ones were kindled. Groups could be found reminiscing over history, English physics and numerous other classes, and humorous episodes retold still remained humorous. The well known locker leaners, penny flippers and just plain pests, were all there, many of them wishing that they might return to those more carefree days.

A canopied ceiling of red and white, centered by balloons, decorated the gymnasium. Kenny Page (KP) acted as master of ceremonies, and his ready wit kept the party on a whimsical keel.

The climax of the evening was reached when a very lovely member of the class of '45, Pearl Miller, consented to sing. To take the classes back to the day when she sang with the Blue Notes, she sang "Whispering". Miss Miller was then crowned Queen of the Reunion. Her courage and will power during her battle with infantile paralysis the past year has proven a great

Bensenville home festival Sunday

The Bensenville Home, which is supported by Evangelical and Reformed churches in Cook County and in Northern Ill., too, is having its annual festival and homecoming on Sunday, July 27, beginning at 11 a.m.

Many committee members make the annual affair a success, and they are recruited from churches in the area, and from organizations which assist in the welfare work of the institution. The Rev. Glenn G. Gumm, pastor of St. Paul's church, 154 E. Chicago avenue, Palatine, is a member of the advisory-finance committee for a new home which the institution will build for the aged next year and which will cost $700,000.

The day's activities include two worship services, a band concert, a program by the children of the home, pony rides for the children, a home-cooked meal at noon, refreshments for sale at booths on the campus, open house in all buildings, and a long-distance balloon race besides lots of free treats for the 85 children, 52 aged, and 26 additional children cared for in foster homes under the supervision of the institution. Superintendent of the home is the Rev. Alvin J. Munsterman.

Cutting Onion

To obtain juice and fine pulp for soup or clear sauce, cut an onion in half crosswise and grate over a bowl. Or, if a very little juice is wanted, grate over waxed paper and save dishwashing. Cutting onion fine with a sharp knife is easier than grating and often serves a similar purpose.

Johnson questions story of his arrest

Lester Johnson, Palatine, questions a story that appeared in last week's Enterprise regarding his arrest. He states that while he was speeding, he was not driving recklessly and did not resist an officer, although that was the charge that was brought against him. He states that he did not know that a police car was following him, neither did he hear any shots. He stopped his car as soon as the officers turned the spot light upon him.

While there was a second squad car near the scene, only one squad car entered into the chase, which he says was not over 85 miles an hour, not ninety, as stated in the story.

The license number of his car was in error.

The $18 found in his pocket-book by the police was from a pay check he had cashed that day. Among that money was a two dollar bill which Ray Bolter admits was not in his pocket-book.

Johnson was held until the afternoon, awaiting bail of $200, much greater than the bonds set for the other boys who had been taken into custody.

No charges were made against any of the boys at the trial by the three who originally reported the case to the Palatine police. The charge against Johnson for speeding was made by the highway police squad.

"Memories are treasures no one can steal, Death leaves a wound no one can heal."

Mrs. M. Zeravich.

It CAN happen to you

Rudolph Lippke of 412 West Campbell street, Arlington Hgts., was the winner of the 1947 Dodge given away in Morton Grove Sunday night. Mr. Lippke, who is vacationing with two of his three children in Northern Michigan, wasn't on hand to receive the wonderful news, but his wife and son, Paul, were. Being aroused at 1 a. m. with a telephone call telling of the good fortune Mrs. Lippke just couldn't believe it, she thought someone must be playing a practical joke on her. The phone message has been confirmed and in spite of the fact that Mrs. Lippke believed they just couldn't be that lucky, they were.

She tried notifying her husband by wire but when she received no answer to it she called the police patrol and had them send a message out to where Mr. Lippke was staying so he too, could know the good news.

Who is next?

He has also harvested over a hundred pounds of peas from two pounds of seed. He still operates a victory garden. During the war he took over a vacant lot next door with the consent of the owner and is still operating it. It takes a bit of muscle and back bending, says Mrs. Beile, but my family enjoys the vegetables we raise thereon.

RAMBLE INN 'N OUTINGS

by BILL NORTH

Much has been said and much praise has been justly given to the men, women, and students who organized, evolved, and carried out the idea of having a Youth Center like Ramble Inn. However one major group has been often overlooked when the laurels were being handed out. There was the hard foot work, the work that really made Ramble Inn a reality.

In the list of principles and suggestions worked out by the Youth Activities Committee of the Community Council it says, "The funds to purchase equipment and pay the director be obtained by direct contribution from residents of the Arlington Heights High School District." It goes on to say that, "To start the youth center, and run it until June, 1947, it is estimated the following funds will be required, $6,000."

Six thousand dollars is a lot to receive from direct contribution. It requires a great deal of work and cooperation by the Block Chairmen, Finance Committee, and individual canvassers. It is to them that Ramble Inn would like to pay tribute.

The Youth Center Finance Committee was composed of Fred W. Gieseke, Nicholas M. Lattot, Robert M. Beatty, Mrs. K. W. Kennedy. It was this committee that coordinated this effective campaign. All the subdivisions, and other towns like Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights, were interested in this campaign by this Committee and they contributed heavily to its success.

Here is a list of the men and women who did a job that was worth doing. It was their wholehearted interest and support combined with their initiative and hard work that made Ramble Inn possible. I hope they are never sorry they worked for the cause.

Here is the list that we all should be proud of: Mrs. Burton A. Noyes, Mrs. R. E. Lawbaugh, Park Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kurtz, Mrs. C. B. Jones, Elmer Frase, Walter Henke, Myrtle Rapp, Martin Freeman, Mrs. John Shanklin, Mrs. Lillian Kirchhoff, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Speers, V. L. Bedingfield, Chas. F. Hamburg, Richard Lull, Pat McDonald, Mrs. Dorothy Revenagh, Mrs. Lyons, John Kent.

Art Cubley, Richard Rowland, Mr. Baxter, E. D. Bates, A. L. Wartenberg, W. A. Rudolph, W. C. Petterson, D. G. O'Connell, Perry Thomas, Ralph H. Kocaja, J. R. Dunavan, Mrs. A. R. McCarty, V. S. Curtis, Rowland Laughlin, C. L. McCoy, Henry Evans, Mrs. Raymond Atkinson, Mrs. Jos. Zikmund, Mrs. O. G. Osburn, Mrs. Harry Knaack, Mrs. George Schimming, Mrs. O. M. Baldwin, Mrs. James McElhose, Mrs. L. A. Moodie.

Tom Hildebrand, Richard Mates, George Goewey, Charles Wilson, Mark Cleaver, E. T. Cherwin, Donald Cox, Vera Sturm, H. C. Young, Willard C. Walters, H. Gale Blockie, H. J. Gregg, J. W. Boeckh, S. P. Dykstra, Max Warson, Mrs. A. H. Franzen, Mrs. Chas. Stadelman, Geo. N. Tuttle, Chas. E. O'Hagan, L. R. Grant, Frank Havranek, Mrs. Dewey K. Scott, Mrs. Fiedler, Mrs. Barney Runge, Mrs. W. E. Fritz, James E. Millay, Geo. Dieber, Clifford Chapman, John Meyn, Martin Engelking, Frank Tichy, Mrs. Franklin Busse, Wm. Cutler, Mrs. Emil Sieburg, Mrs. Donald Cox, Mrs. Irving Rinker. We hope we've included everyone, but if we've missed anyone, our appreciation goes to you especially.

Ramble Inn would also like to thank all you residents of Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and rural areas for supporting the campaign so fully.

—Y. C.—
 Money's the root of all evil
 Or so some people say
 Yet look at all the good it does
 When used the proper way.
 Yes, the money that was given
 For use at Ramble Inn
 Will certainly never sprout
 Into a week of sin.
 So thanks to every person
 Who worked and did his part
 On the finance committee
 Which gave Ramble Inn its start.

More scouts at summer camp

Scouts who attended the first and second periods have indicated that the camp provides each camper with a good time, excellent meals, a fine advancement program, and many opportunities to explore the wooded acres in the reservations.

Park Ridge kicks about phone rates

The Intercity Cooperation commission of Park Ridge has filed a strong protest with the Illinois commerce commission against the steeply increased telephone toll rates recently granted to the Ill. Bell Telephone company.

However, the Middle States telephone company which serves Park Ridge and Des Plaines did not increase their rates between these two points. But since Ill. Bell has raised their rates between Chicago and Park Ridge the Middle States company was forced to raise their rates between Park Ridge and Chicago because rates between the same two points must be the same.

Wilhelmia Kamps

Funeral services for Wilhelmia Kamps, nee Busing of Arlington Heights, were held Wednesday from the Lauterburg and Oehler chapel. Interment was in Euclid Lawn cemetery.

Those left to mourn her departure are her children, Mrs. Hulda Wahl, Mrs. Lily Menke and Martin Kamps, and one brother, Henry Brockman of Schiller Park.

FOR YOUR SAFETY

Every known facility for safe operation and control of an automobile is built into it. These safety features have been given gruelling tests, they have been proved and perfected by years of the finest engineering experience. But their maintenance and handling are up to you. Safe driving depends upon the efficient operation of these factors.

Watch your steering gear for excessive play—keep your brakes in trim, inspect tires for weaknesses that may result in blowouts. Be sure all lights are working, "one-eyed" cars are dangerous. Check your mirror for clear rear-vision. Be sure your horn works—but don't abuse its use. Do your windshield wipers wipe?

Remember, no matter how good the safety features of your car—they are only as good as your ability to control them. If you are overtired from driving strain—stop, rest, drink a cup of coffee. If you are mentally or nervously upset, let someone else drive. If you've been drinking, stay off the road.

Keep your car—and yourself—always in condition for safe motoring.

While mutual play has been a little off from last year's record breaking season the attendance has been large with big crowds daily and many new friends have been made for beautiful Arlington and its high class racing productions.

Armed wins

One of the largest crowds of the season turned out last Saturday to see the famous Armed, champion of the Calumet stable, prove once again that he is a real champion by going out in front and handily winning the Arlington Handicap from a field of the best of the older racers that could be mustered against him.

A huge crowd of over 30,000 race fans gave Armed a great ovation; and poured the second largest handle through the mutual machines, the amount only being exceeded by the big July 4 crowd which is always the banner outpouring of the year.

With Arlington's highly successful season closing Saturday the racing scene will shift Monday to Washington park where the coordinated program of the Arlington-Washington Jockey clubs will be continued with more high class racing and with the same program of rich stakes and big overnight purses for the horsemen to shoot at.

Racing at Washington park will continue through Labor Day Monday, September 1.

Auto racing this Sunday at Milwaukee

Regarded as the fastest dirt oval in America the one-mile track at Wis. State Fair Park, Milwaukee, will be the scene Sunday afternoon, of a national championship 100-mile big car automobile race to be staged by the Wis. Auto Racing Association under sanction of the American Automobile Association.

Time trials, to determine the starting positions of the 16 fastest cars in Sunday afternoon's classic, will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. The lineup for Sunday's race also is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

Bill Holland, 39-year old Bridgeport (Conn.) driver, who now leads the AAA point parade and who won the last 100-mile race at Wis. State Fair Park in June, heads a brilliant field of entries in Sunday's race. Holland was the second place winner at Indianapolis this year, losing first only through greck luck.

They will be seeking to better two AAA track records which were established on June 8 — Bettenhausen's time trial mark of 37.36 seconds for one lap, and Holland's figure of 1 hour, 8 min., 44.60 seconds for the 100-mile route.

Golfer calls his shot at Old Orchard; hits a hole-in-one

Here's one of those once in a lifetime golf shots: Sonny Rouse was playing with Elmer Wickersham, owner of Old Orchard Golf Club near Arlington Heights, and Ben Riley, the pro, and he casually asked Wickersham as they stepped up to the treacherous 220-yard 8th hole how much he was paying off for a hole-in-one these days.

Wickersham replied: "Oh, I'll pay five bucks any day." Rouse took out his No. 3 wood and sent a beauty whistling over the water hole, onto the green and into the cup for as neat an ace as you would care to see.

Ever since then "Wick" has been wary of answering anybody when someone asks him: "How much for an ace today, 'Wick'?"

Former Arlington pitcher signed for Cardinal farm

Dick Bokelman, Northwestern university ace who had been on the payroll of Glen Ellyn of the Greater Chicago league, recently signed a St. Louis Cardinals contract and was assigned to Rochester of the International league. He won two and lost one for Glen Ellyn.

Art Bergstrom to coach football at Decatur high

Arthur J. Bergstrom, director of athletics at Libertyville township high school, submitted his resignation last week. It becomes effective immediately. On August 11 Bergstrom will become football coach and physical education teacher at the Decatur Senior High school.

The resignation of Bergstrom came as a surprise in local school circles. He had considered the Decatur offer some weeks before he decided to accept at a much larger salary than he received here, and brighter prospects in his chosen profession.

Bergstrom came to Libertyville in 1936 from Monticello, Ill., where he had coached the high school football team and taught physical education. He succeeded Jack Martin in Libertyville as football coach.

During his career in Libertyville, Art's football teams won four conference championships, 1 in the Northwest conference in 1938, three in the Northeast conference in 1940, 1942 and 1943. From 1941 to 1944 the local football teams won 24 consecutive games, one of the best records ever established by an Ill. high school eleven.

There is an enrollment of 2,000 at the Decatur Senior high school. The city also has four junior high schools. Decatur is a member of the Big Twelve conference. Others include: Danville, Champaign-Urbana, Mattoon, Springfield, Bloomington, Peoria Central, Peoria Manual, Streator, Pekin.

Poole Fords lose to Winnetka

Poole Fords, winners last week of ninth district competition in American Legion ball, bowed out against Winnetka in games Wednesday and Friday when the locals lost, 4-3 and 9-2.

Bob Thollander pitched a masterpiece two hit game Wednesday for the Fords, but four unearned runs gave the host Lake Shore squad the victory.

Friday's contest at Arlington saw Steffensen shoved to the showers in a hurry when he was knocked out of the box in the third frame.

Lawn Soil
Lawn grasses can adapt themselves to quite a wide range of soil conditions. Where the soil is extremely light or heavy, it is best to attempt to improve the texture. This can be done by adding sandy material to a heavy soil; by adding clay material to a light soil; by resurfacing the area with three or four inches of a desirable loam or sandy soil (this is rather expensive), or by digging peat moss into the soil.

Abandoned Lombard school sold for $175

Some day soon one of those modern quick-moving rigs will hoist from the ground the old district school building on the north side of Roosevelt rd. south-east of Lombard and gone will be the deserted shell of a center of learning that up to two years ago had provided "reading" and "writing" and "arithmetic" for four generations of children reared in the Lombard vicinity.

Bowing to the new trend of consolidation, the district 49 school board two terms back suspended classes in the old building and tuition instead was paid for sending the children to other schools, most of them coming to Lombard. Eventual merging with city school district has been discussed but no agreement has been reached.

Last week, Monday, the school board made the new policy permanent by selling the school house. Advertisement had been made for bidders to buy the building and remove it, and the best offer was $175 made by Fred W. Radunzel, 940 Hammerschmidt avenue, Lombard. The Radunzel's, a bit surprised at the success of their bid, said their plans are not yet in shape to announce.

16-year-old drunken driver smashes 3 cars, loses license

Walter H. Schaefer, 16 years old, living at 918 Des Plaines avenue, Des Plaines, surrendered his driving license to Judge A. L. Sengstock last week, following a hearing at which he pleaded guilty to driving a car while drunk. Meyer of Oakton and Wolf roads and Ed Koehler of Howard avenue. Both cars of the latter were parked in front of the Lutheran school on Lee street, their owners attending a meeting. About ten p. m. they heard a loud crash and ran out to find the Schaefer car had rammed the Meyer car from the rear, which in turn slammed into the Koehler car.

Although only 16 years of age at the time of the accident, police booked Schaefer for driving while drunk.

Setting up exhibits for Wisconsin fair

Every square inch of exhibit space for the 1947 Wis. State Fair was completely sold March 15. Livestock and crop classifications have been enlarged and the finest industrial exhibits ever displayed have been arranged. The primary aim of these exhibits is the advancement of agriculture in the Middle-west.

Special emphasis is placed this year on modern breed improvement practices as recommended by the American Pure Bred cattle association. New livestock classes include five in the Holstein-Friesian cattle division. A completely new milk-fed lamb class to encourage the production of quality lambs will be shown and judged August 16.

Over $10,000 in premiums will be paid to beef and dual purpose breeders for their cattle. The world-wide demand for American meat has helped to make this fat stock show the finest in all time. The Wis. State Fair has gone all out in swine premiums this year with a total of $8,254 in prize money. The barrow judging contest will again high-light the swine show.

Dairy products will claim $3,950 in premiums this year at the State Fair. Along with the dairy products exhibits, actual cheese and butter factories will be in operation in the Dairy Building and modern packaging methods will be shown and explained.

1,100 attend sessions of Lutheran women's confab

More than 1100 women representing practically every state in the United States, gathered at the Hotel Continental in Chicago for the third national biennial convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, July 18 and 19.

The League which in the past two years has contributed more than $50,000 toward Child Rehabilitation in Europe, voted at the convention to continue with that project, and also to raise funds for erecting a chapel in Monterey, Mexico.

The officers elected were Mrs. S. F. Roehrs, Fort Wayne, Ind. president; Mrs. A. Preisinger, Chicago, 1st vice-president; Mrs. M. Hunter, Ft. Collins, Colo., 2nd vice-president; Mrs. R. H. C. Meyer, St. Louis, Mo., recording secretary; Mrs. R. Roehrkasse, Grand Island, Nebraska, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. A. Haas, Topeka, Kansas; financial secretary; Mrs. A. H. Meitler, Enid, Oklahoma, treasurer. The Reverends R. H. C. Meyer, St. Louis, O. Feider, Chicago and W. C. Ibkner, Fort Wayne, were re-elected pastoral counselors.

Present conditions in Europe and the urgent need of our help in both physical and spiritual measures, were stressed in addresses given by Dr. Lawrence Meyer of St. Louis, Mo., Dr. Walter A. Maier, Lutheran Hour speaker, Mr. Theodore Schlake of Chicago and Chaplain Henry Gerrecke, who as a major in the U. S. Army told of his assignment at the Nuremberg War trials in Germany.

Missions in South America were briefly described by the Rev. George Miller who for 12 years has been a missionary at Porto Alegre, Brazil. The "Cause of the Deaf" was brought before the convention by Dr. J. L. Salver of Robbinsdale, Minn. and Rev. Theodore Frederking of Cleveland, Ohio. The first national project of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League was to contribute $15,000 to erect a chapel for the deaf in Cleveland.

The work of the League in local societies, district and circuit groups was discussed by ladies from various districts. The Rev. A. Krentz, executive secretary of the Deaconess Association assisted by Deaconesses Nettye Kimberley, Frieda Bremmerrmann and Lulu Noess, R. N., covered the subject of deaconess work in the church.

In addition to the league's participation were Dr. G. Christian Barth of Springfield, Ill. Rev. A. H. Wrefelmann of Elgin, president of the Northern Ill. District of the Lutheran church Mo. Synod, and Rev. W. J. Daraker of West Chicago, pastoral advisor of the N. Ill. district.

Diversion for out of town guests included an escorted tour through Marshall Field store, trip through the Chicago Tribune plant, sight-seeing bus trip through Chicago culminating at Concordia Teachers college in River Forest and a two-hour boat trip on Lake Michigan affording an excellent view of Chicago's imposing skyline.

Continue reinstate date of GI insurance

The liberal reinstatement privileges now in effect for National Service Life Insurance have been extended to Jan. 1, 1946, Homer G. Bradney, administrator of the Illinois Veterans Commission announced today.

Previously veterans of World War II had until August 1, 1947 to reinstate insurance without a physical examination. Bradney said the deadline has been extended to give every former policyholder more time to reinstate simply by certifying that he is in as good health as at the time of lapse. Two monthly premiums must accompany an application for reinstatement. He also pointed out that veterans who carried $10,000 insurance are not required to take the whole amount. Any amount from $1,000 to $10,000 may be selected.

Applications for reinstatement may be obtained from Melvin L. Kehe, service officer for the Illinois Veterans Commission with offices at 210 N. Dunton St.

Laying Loss
Death loss of laying hens on farms in the U. S. in 1946 was 17.4 per cent of the number of all chickens on hand at the beginning of the year.

Presenting the younger generation

On the far left is Sharon Foster 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Forster of 202 N. Clarendon, Prospect Heights. Her hair is blonde, her eyes brown.

The next young lady with the serious outlook on life is Nancy Lucille Streetz, 7 week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Streetz of 22 S. Elm, Mt. Prospect. Like Sharon she has blonde hair. Her eyes are blue however instead of brown.

In a more gay mood is 4½ months old Marilyn Jean Mangels. This Miss with brown hair and blue eyes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mangels, 15 N. Benton, Palatine.

This lone young man this week is 5 year old Mickey Stoffel son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stoffel of 25 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Questions on G. I. bill

This is another in a series of question and answers regarding the rights of ex-servicemen and their families, as answered by Mr. Edward J. Kehe, Veterans Employment representative, Ill. State Employment Service, at 3306 W. Lawrence avenue. For further information, contact Mr. Kehe. In this series, the ISES attempts to answer questions most frequently asked by ex-servicemen and women.

Question: I have mailed a request to the navy to obtain a statement of my foreign service to present to the Service Recognition Board of Ill. Should I wait longer for this reply? I understand that a new form now is available.

Answer: You should now file Form 54 of the Service Recognition Board. This is a new form of affidavit the board is considering as evidence of your service and eliminates the delay entailed by the navy department's lack of staff.

Question: May I obtain a GI loan while I draw subsistence as a student?

Answer: Yes, you may obtain a loan at the same time you are drawing subsistence. You will have to satisfy the Veterans Administration and your lender that you have the ability to repay the loan within the requirement of the law.

Question: My son has been totally disabled for the past five months. Must he pay his National Service Life Insurance premiums or is a waiver on these premiums granted automatically?

Answer: Yes, he must continue to pay his National Service Life Insurance premiums until he receives notice from the Veterans Administration to discontinue these payments. There is no automatic waiver. When the veteran has been totally disabled for six months, he should submit a written application for waiver of premiums to the Veterans Administration, plus whatever medical evidence he may have of his disability condition.

Question: While in the process of being discharged from the navy I lost some baggage and personal property; how may I try to find it?

Answer: Naval personnel who have lost baggage or personal effects within the continental U. S. should write directly to the station that made the shipment, requesting a tracer. For effects missing either through overseas or continental shipment, when specific information is not known, inquiry should be made to the Personal Effects Distribution Center, Naval Supply Depot, Clearfield Ogden, Utah.

PATENT GRANTED

A patent has been issued in Washington to Walter Glass, of Northbrook for a reflector shield unit for germicidal lamps.

Thawing Pipes

Don't try to thaw out frozen water pipes with an open flame. The only safe way is to use hot cloths. Plumbers and heating contractors have equipment which will thaw pipes by the use of an electric current.

At Colorado

Leonard Brown of 117 N. Cedar St., Palatine, is attending the Summer Session at Colorado State College of Education at Greeley.

Enrollment is the highest since pre-war summers with a total of 2,063. Of this number, 1,044 are graduate students, and there are 710 veterans.

Over 300 courses are included in the program and there are 30

Lillian Straff wed in simple ceremony

Candelabra and baskets of white hydrangeas in the French doorway of the Ralph Darling home in Palatine made an appropriate setting for the wedding of the Darling's daughter, Miss Lillian Straff and Mr. Roger Tarnow, son of Mrs. Margaret Tarnow, also of Palatine. The ceremony was performed Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. William Fetz of the Palatine Methodist church.

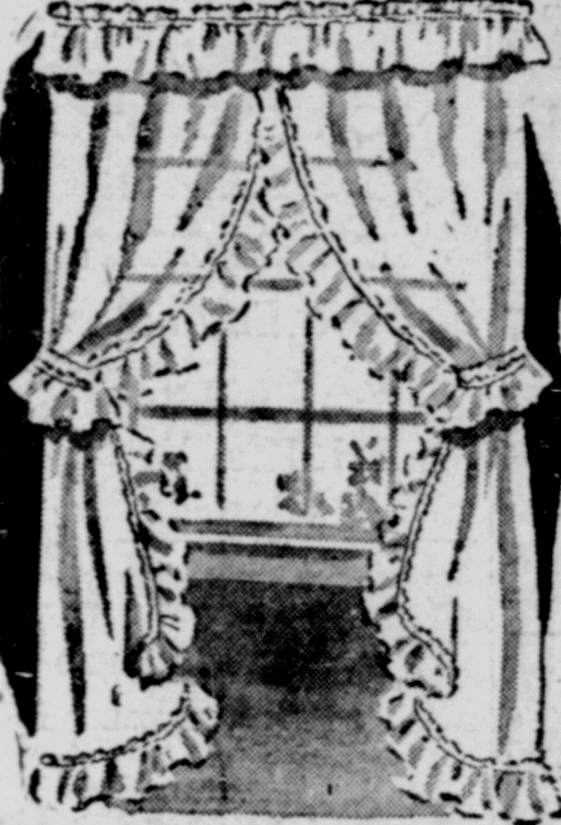

Miss Straff, given in marriage by her father, was gown in a pale blue silk jersey dress set off with white accessories. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and a corsage of white carnations with a matching spray in her hair. The bride's only attendant was Katherine O'Brien, who served as matron of honor. Mrs. O'Brien wore a pale pink dress, had white accessories, and also had a corsage of pink carnations with a matching spray in her hair.

The bridegroom was attended by Clarence Vogt as best man.

Following the ceremony a late supper was served to members of the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Tarnow are now enjoying a week's honeymoon in Wisconsin and upon their return will make their home with the groom's mother.

1907 Buick oldest car on state highways

One-hundred-sixty makes of passenger automobiles, one of them a forty-year old model, have been licensed to operate in Ill. since the first of the year. Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett said.

Most of the popular early "gasoline buggies" are represented in the current passenger car license registrations which now total 1,598,734. Secretary Barrett said that a review of the automobile department files showed the oldest licensed car to be a 1907 Buick. Other licensed old-timers are a 1908 Stoddard-Dayton; 1909 and 1910 models of both the Brush and the E. M. F.; a 1913 Regal; 1914 Allen; 1916 Stanley; 1918 Overland; and five 1920 models including a Birch, Cleveland, Patterson, Revere and Scripps-Both. Six Detroit-Electrics have licenses.

Another group of old-time models have titles only because they are maintained by their owners as museum pieces or collector's items, and not for road use. These include a 1902 Gardner-Serpollet and a 1903 Auto-car as well as many of the more popular models manufactured from 1907 on through 1920.

Mr. Barrett said that foreign cars represented in the license files include a Maericar, Mar Rosse, Hispano Suiza, Newfield Motor Glide, Standard, Volkswagen, Matford and Delta. The last four were brought back to the country by G. I.'s.

O. to Meacham, north to county line, east ½ mile, north 2 ¼ mile to Fasse corner, east to German school, south to Deike corner, east to Barney Elfring corner, south to Dohr corner, northwest to Henry Harke, south to August Wede corner, east to Forke corner, southwest to P. O. making a total of 21.85 miles.

This serves everybody in that circuit. The old route was 24.50, making a difference of about three miles.

Wheeling draws men for army

Everyone in Wheeling was watching with interest the drawing of the numbers for the new army. The first ten in this precinct whose names were drawn are: A. Teske, R. O. Schmidt, H. H. Pohlman, Wm. Wiest, Henry C. Grandt, Ferd. Kerschke, F. W. Weiflin, Ed. Schmidt, Frode Peterson, Art Hugo. Perhaps three or four will be taken to make up the new army.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

ar Jane:
"In prairie country any child can gaze with level eyes straight across the world's rim into deep skies. And there on hot mid-summer days When soft winds blow, Mighty mountain peaks arise With slopes of pearl and snow. A prairie child will never find In any mountain chain Summits so majestic As those above the plain. Those dazzling Himalays That cover half of heaven: They are not marked on any map In any atlas given. And never will a mountain From any earthly view So satisfy the prairie born As those cloud mountains do." The above words of Ruby T.

Scott are, indeed, true to those of us who claim Illinois as our birthplace. We may wander far over the face of the earth but the "feeling for the prairie" goes with us. The majesty of rock formation will stir our emotions but it will ever be necessary with us to return to the serenity of prairies for rest and contentment.

However, haven't you heard people say, "how very flat and uninteresting Illinois is!" And haven't you felt your blood boil upon hearing such a statement? We here in northern Illinois see both hill country and flat land, and our own particular bit of the good earth has both. We are bound on three sides by gently sloping hills, leaving us one stretch for gazing "straight across the world's rim into deep skies."

Rob says he never tires of this "gazing." Nor do I. It is the same, yet ever changing. Sometimes I think I love it most immediately after a heavy rain when the sun re-appears over the lush fields of alfalfa and small grain.

It is like that at this moment. I wish I were able to describe the countryside as it appears to me now. The rain had come suddenly, and with great force. It looked much like a great grey sheet suspended in the sky, blotting out the hills in the background. Now the wind has gone, and it is quiet here. I can hear a single bird in the locust tree near the terrace. The sun is going down, but slowly. It is after seven in the seven in the evening so the shadows are long on the front lawn. Everything has a tinge of yellow—the grass, the white buildings, and even the red geraniums are overcast.

BY T. C. HART

THISTLES

While the farmers of this country are trying their best to eradicate the Canada thistle and are now meeting considerable success with some of the new fangled sprays that pesky plant is being used as a food in some of the hard pressed countries of Europe.

A local farmer who sent a package to a family in the Russian zone in Germany got a letter of appreciation from the head of the family who told about baling thistles and another weed that we consider a pest, grinding them up, adding a little oatmeal and making the main part of the meal out of that concoction. So what is a pest and a poison to the fields of the American farmer is food and nourishment to the people of the war torn lands.

Locally several farmers report success in keeping the thistles under control through spraying them, the spray being most effective if used before the middle of April.

NEGLECTED ROADS

Thistle commissioner Clyde Moffett of Palatine township says that he is meeting with fine cooperation in the thistle and weed campaign from the local farmers and that his worst worries are caused by the thistles growing on vacant property which is owned by outside owners and by the miles of uncut county roads.

The county seems to be up against it from a help standpoint, not being able to secure machines to cut the roads for the amount of money offered for the job. State roads and those under the control of the township have been cut and many outside owners of vacant property are authorizing the commissioner to cut their thistles and send them a bill.

Palatine township is making a real effort to control the pests.

WHERE THE TALL CORN GROWS

Iowa has a reputation for being the state "where the tall corn grows." In fact, the state song sings the praises of "Iowa, Iowa out where the tall corn grows." But we are convinced that Iowa raises a lot of other things besides tall corn.

The other morning we walked into the store and there sat No. Chrisman of Race Hill, Iowa, an old acquaintance who had taken a vacation from his Iowa farm to come here for a week at the Arlington Park races.

Mr. Chrisman is an old time horseman who had campaigned race horses all over the country in the days when racing and race tracks were more rugged institutions than they are today, when purses were much smaller and the accommodations at the track couldn't compare to the palatial plants of the present.

In talking with Mr. Chrisman, who can tell many an interesting story of the race tracks, we were surprised to hear that a whole lot of the famous trainers and jockeys came from the small towns of the Iowa prairies and as he recounted knowing famous trainers of the present back in the days when they were hustling around Iowa county fair tracks for a ham sandwich we concluded that Iowa raised more than tall corn and that the folks out there have an interest in other things than the corn crop.

Mr. Chrisman, who by the way gets a great kick out of visiting big Arlington Park and renewing old friendships of the tracks, told us about the Iowa floods this spring. He says that with the late planting, that tall corn of Iowa has got to hustle to live up to its reputation, just as it has to do in this part of the country.

NIGHT RACING

Harness racing of the present is a whole lot different than in the old county fair days when horses had to go the best in five heats to win a race. The other night we saw night harness racing for the first time over at Maywood Park and things sure have changed in the harness racing world.

Now every dash is a race and the races are not at one mile. Some are mile races, some less and some more. The same pari-mutuel system applies to the betting as they have at the big tracks with an odds board showing the shifting odds.

The whole place was nicely lighted and you could see the horses on the back stretch just as good as in daylight. The crowd seemed to get a big kick out of the proceedings and the program was run off with speed and precision.

"They run these races off in fast time," we remarked to a friend who replied, "too fast to suit me. I can't get and make up my mind what I like before they're off." And who should we run into that night but the Chicago curbstone bookie whom we told about losing his $3,000 roll by betting on odds on choice to show and then seeing the animal run out of the money.

"Do you follow these things?" we asked. "Haven't missed a night since they opened the track last year," was his prompt reply and he maintained that after you get to know them the harness horses were a lot easier to beat than the runners.

Our friend, Chrisman who was along that night and saw the horses start from that new fangled movable starting gate and saw some of the best favorites go off on a break, had other ideas. "This is no place for a betting man," he remarked, "too many uncertainties." The big crowd seemed to think otherwise and the betting was brisk but in much smaller sizes than you see at the running tracks.

Regardless of the betting angle a lot of people like to see harness races and there were thousands in the stands that night that never left their seats and who were just there to see them go. When an elderly lady driver brought her horse from far back to win the feature race of the evening in a photo finish the big crowd gave her a thundering ovation.

Yes, if a person likes the harness horses, this night racing offers them a great opportunity to see the sport under comfortable conditions. The announcing system at the Maywood track, by the way, is something that some of the big tracks could take some lessons from.

NO. 114

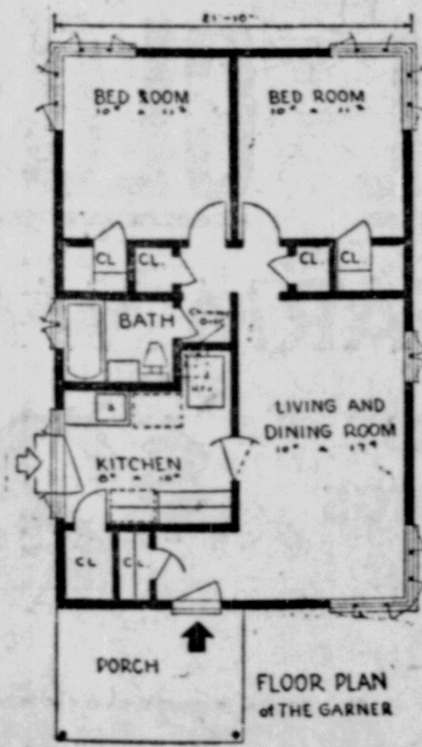

We've looked at that number 114 on the Palatine police car for a long time and we've still wondering where the other 113 police cars are.

Designed to conform to the Property Requirements of FHA, its electrical layout is by National Adequate Wiring Bureau to insure maximum electrical efficiency for appliances and for lighting without the glare that induces eye strain. Built of brick with tile or metal roof it is a near fire-proof as a house can be. Simple lines distinguish the GARNER. Its steel-casement corner windows impart a distinction seldom found in small houses. They provide cross ventilation and an unusual amount of wall space for attractive furniture arrangement. Urges better service, more consideration before granting railroad fare increase

RAILROAD FARES

I heard the other day the five of Chicago's suburban railroads have before the Illinois Commerce Commission a petition for a 20% increase in commuter fares.

I don't have the information as to which railroads are asking this increase but it is not in accordance with the government anti-inflation program.

I have every reason to believe that the C.&N.W. railroad is one of the ones seeking this increase in rate and if so this is an opportunity for all the Palatine people to write to the chairman of the Ill. Commerce Commission, and request this increase be withheld until such a time when the service rendered its patrons warrants same. There have been many complaints in this paper about the unsafe operating habits of the C.&N.W. R.R. and also the poor service given commuters.

This is the time to do the complaining, not after the fares are increased.

I feel a commuter is sort of a stockholder in the railroad and his only dividend is the service he gets for a dollar spent, but if the boys who hold the gilt edged stocks get their cash, I'd say let both share in their respective ways and the second will follow the first.

OPERA

Harry Zelzer, concert manager, who for many years has brought world famous artists to Chicago, will again present the San Carlos Opera Company this October. Mr. Zelzer's plan this year will endeavor to give outlying communities an opportunity to share in this distinct honor. He would like to set aside a certain night or nights for Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, etc. Many of the residents attend this opera each season anyway and this plan would give them additional pleasure and convenience, besides have some local organization share in each ticket sold in each community.

Here is the plan. We will work with some responsible individual, organization or newspaper in each town and sell as many subscriptions as possible. In this way, your neighbors will be guaranteed seats in advance, and a certain percentage of the sales would be donated to the treasury of said organization sponsoring this famous opera company. Arrangements would be made with the Chicago and Northwestern railroad for special cars, which would take your people within a few steps to the Civic Opera House.

Any organization wishing to sponsor such a project can contact me at 4437 Greenwood ave., Chicago 15.

LIKE TO FISH

Mrs. Warder and I drove up here 3 weeks ago to visit with Charlie our son and his wife. We are having a wonderful time and expect to stay here for about another 2 weeks. I would be glad and thankful if you would send us the news to the above address the next 2 weeks.

I have been doing a lot of fishing here and up to now I have caught 1769 ½ fish, some of them already smoked.

This is rather a new experience for me fishing in rivers and lakes. I have done most of my fishing in the past in the deep blue sea. But still I'm getting lots of fish and lots of bites (mosquitos).

CALIFORNIA

I and my friends enjoy your paper. Arlington Heights seems to be climbing up and making many improvements. This little valley town where I am enjoying Calif. climate is very quaint and wet. So wet that it will take all eternity to atone for its crimes.

However, if more families of high caliber join this community and make an effort to better the city government progress would develop. We enjoy Moonlight Symphonies, Centennials and all much of with celebrations of rodeos and parades of riding groups which come from as far south as Los Angeles.

It Happened Here

Summer Dawn

How still the meadow lies,
In misty green of paradise!
How tall each blade of grass
Before the reapers pass!
Let care and worry cease;
Here is a secret peace;
And joy lives here as well,
The stantling sunbeams tell.
In such a green and secret place
Wild creatures seek for grace;
For here is God and God is love,
Cools the rapt mourning dove.

Our colored rags of iron man had such a misery in his back. "I've got arthritis," he said. From looking at the Sat. Eve. Post cartoons, perhaps.

Illinois corn is still two weeks behind

The Illinois corn crop is still an average of two weeks behind normal, a slight improvement over a month ago, according to estimates made by the Illinois Agricultural Association board of directors in session today.

The IAA board is composed of 15 long-time Farm Bureau leaders and operating farmers representing every section of the state.

The Farm Bureau leaders were of the opinion that given a fair share of hot weather with warm growing nights and a reasonably late fall, Ill. farmers would produce a corn crop about 70 to 80 per cent of last year's record breaker.

Some were of the opinion that the U. S. Department of Agriculture estimate of 406,000,000 bushels of corn for Ill. is a bit optimistic.

The Ill. wheat crop, grown principally in the southern half of the state, is now being combined. According to IAA board members a bumper wheat crop is being harvested with yields averaging as much as 30 to 40 bushels per acre.

Oats, which are about to be harvested, are light and chaffy and will yield less than an average Ill. crop, the Farm Bureau leaders estimated. However, the new disease-resistant Clinton, a late variety of oats, shows promise of excellent yields.

Soybeans, they estimated, would yield at least a normal crop throughout Ill. The beans are in first class condition and a normal acreage has been planted. The expected increase in soybean production due to the late corn planting has not materialized, they said.

July pastures throughout the state are an unusual lush green. Several members of the IAA board said that they had never seen the pastures in such excellent condition at this time of the year.

Hay is still producing very heavy cuttings because of the favorable weather and greater hay acreage than anticipated this spring. Quality of the hay, however, runs to stemmy and coarse.

June bond sales

June Savings Bonds sales in Illinois totaled $42,585,527, according to Arnold J. Rau, State Director of the Treasury's U. S. Savings Bonds Division.

Series E sales were $26,287,846, Series F, $14,125,800, and Series G, $14,125,800.

good source of Vitamins A - B1 and riboflavin. Margarine made from soybean oil and fortified with Vitamin A is also recommended.

Rising costs force families of moderate income to devote 7 per cent more of their income today to food bills, for a total of 42 per cent of the pay check, according to a recent report by the National Industrial Conference Board. As all foods made from soybeans, such as margarine, flour, grits and canned or dry beans, are low-priced, families with budget problems can solve many of them by turning to these protein and vitamin-rich soy products.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reports that soybeans produce more food proteins for the labor expended than any other high protein food. Soybeans have four and a half times more protein per unit of labor than white flour wheat, almost three times more than dry beans, and thirty-one times more than whole milk. It is actually cheaper to produce protein for America through soybeans than through livestock products or other field crops.

In recently issued leaflets on low-cost menus, the government purchases of meat, poultry, fish or eggs with various beans, including the soybean, which is especially rich in calcium, phosphorus, iron, and fat. When used green, the soybean is regarded as an important vegetable and is a

Late planting of soybeans will aid nation's food needs

Soybean production is the silver lining in this year's crop and calories outlook, according to latest U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. Although Midwest acres cannot all be flood-reclaimed for productive crop use this year, areas in which unseasonably wet weather has cut down corn and grain crops are expected to produce a bumper soybean crop — good news for food consumers as well as soybean growing communities.

75 YEARS OF SERVICE TO FARMERS

3,000 farmers read these pages 52 weeks of the year

Driver of the car in the ditch failed to yield the right-of-way, even to an ambulance. He ran through a plainly visible stop sign, directly into the path of the ambulance, and was knocked across the road. Driver was killed, and a passenger was injured. Emergency vehicles always have the right-of-way—but at other times, too, it pays to be courteous at intersections. Failure to grant right-of-way ranked second as a cause of motor vehicle deaths in 1946. National Conservation Bureau advises: when in doubt, always yield the right-of-way.

Fertilizers to continue scarce for all

Here's an over-all report on the fertilizer situation, from A. L. Lang, of the agronomy department at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Lang says the outlook is not so favorable as we had hoped. The heavy demand of the past few years will continue, but production of mixed goods, superphosphate and potash will probably not be stepped up to meet that demand. As a result, many users of fertilizers will again be short, or will be forced to accept something less desirable than what they really want or need.

This adds up to ordering your plant food materials early, and taking delivery as soon as possible. And that will mean storage. Lang makes these suggestions about storing:

Store only in very dry places, closed from drafts which bring in moist air. Do not put bags of fertilizer on concrete floors. If you're going to store on concrete floors, place board planks on the floor in both directions under the bags. That permits the air to circulate and prevents contact with the floor. Don't stack too many bags on top of each other—the weight tends to cause caking or hardening of the materials. A stack six or seven bags high is the recommended maximum for safety.

Set any torn or broken bags off to one side where moisture collected by the exposed material won't affect bags in good condition.

Incidentally, users who order early and accept delivery usually receive a better cured product, which will keep better in storage and handle through machinery applicators.

Lang says the promise of plenty of nitrogen for this year's corn crop hasn't materialized to date, but he's hoping for ample supplies of nitrogen by 1948. He feels that supplies of limestone and rock phosphate, though, will be greater than last year and few Illinois fields needing lime for 1948 clover seedings need to go without it because of short supplies.

New companies are beginning to supply rock phosphate for direct application, and several of the older distributors have stepped up their output. So, Lang says, if you place your order for rock phosphate a reasonable time in advance, he's quite sure you'll be taken care of during 1947 or early 1948.

Rock phosphate can be stored safely any place where there's a roof over it. Some folks have even stored bulk rock phosphate in piles out in the open, but that isn't recommended if it can be avoided. Usually, Lang says, there's a place to spread rock phosphate on the farm whenever it arrives, so it doesn't need to be stored.

Right now, for instance, it can be applied on late-planted corn and bean fields as long as the crops aren't big enough to be damaged by the distributing machinery. Even though there's no noticeable gain on the immediate crop, the phosphorus will remain in the soil for next year's hay and small grain crops.

Cut-over hay lands, pasture land and small-grain stubble fields with hay seedings are very desirable places for spreading rock phosphate. There needn't be a seasonal peak in using rock phosphate, so a prospective user can order and accept it at slack periods in the distributor's program.

Lang says that if Illinois people will do this he believes the Illinois demand for rock phosphate will be met for 1947 and 1948, even though it be much greater than ever before.

Two pastures better than one

Heavy alternate grazing was the pasture management system which gave largest animal gains per acre in seven years' results of pasture studies with cattle and sheep at the Dixon Springs Experiment station. The pasture was divided by a temporary fence, and livestock were pastured alternately on two different areas of the pasture. This system was compared with moderate alternate grazing, moderate continuous grazing and heavy continuous grazing.

Use new oats for corn

New crop oats, on the basis of prospective price, should be used to the limit in grain rations for livestock. Ground oats may make up 25 to 30 percent of the grain ration for hogs without reducing the average daily gain. For beef cattle half of the grain ration may consist of oats while the cattle are being started in feed. However, during the latter half of the feeding period not more than 20 to 25 percent of the grain ration should consist of oats. The oats need not be ground for calves but should be ground for older cattle.

LAW on the FARM

Bang's Disease. — Under provision of Ill. Law, a cattle owner may enter into an agreement with the United States Department of Agriculture and have his animals tested for Bang's disease. The State Department of Agriculture is a cooperating agency, and application may be made directly to it.

A herd may be accredited as abortion-free. Infected animals may be destroyed with the consent of the owner, in which case he is entitled to a maximum indemnity from the State Dept. of Agriculture, of $50 if the animal is a purebred and $25 if a grade. Payment of this indemnity by the state department is contingent upon availability of funds and payment of an equal sum by the federal government.

Animals that are not destroyed are subject to quarantine rules and regulations of the department and cannot be disposed of except in accordance with its orders. For the purpose of enforcing its rules and regulations, employees of the department are empowered to enter, during usual working hours, "any premises, barns, stables, sheds, or other places where cattle are kept."

Shipments of dairy or breeding cattle more than four months of age into Ill. and the movement of such animals out of public stock-yards to points within the state must be accompanied by certificates of health issued by an accredited veterinarian in good standing. Cattle for feeding and grazing can be brought in without such a certificate, but during the feeding or grazing period they shall be held under quarantine by the department.

The law was amended in 1945 to provide that "the owner of any herd of domestic cattle who desires to cooperate with the department in the elimination of

Must be particular with chemical control of weeds

What spray material should I use to kill the weeds in my garden? This question is one that is asked in various ways. A good many people have the idea that there is some magic chemical that will kill all weeds and leave all cultivated plants alive. The idea is alluring, but it has no foundation in fact.

Great progress has been made in the chemical control of weeds during the past five years. Most successful of all is the chemical weeding of carrots. In the first few years stove oils were used which were much like the oils that are burned to heat our homes. Stove oils killed nearly all species of weeds and did not harm the carrots. However, they often left residual flavors and odors that ruined the carrots. Now materials are used that conform to the specifications of Stoddard's solvents. These are similar or identical to the materials used in dry cleaning clothing. They are very volatile and leave neither flavor nor odor after a few weeks. They are applied to the rows of carrots at the rate of 80 to 100 gallons an acre. The application is made when the carrots have developed their third or fourth leaves and are about 2 inches tall. This method is also successful with other Umbellifera, such as parsnip, parsley and celery.

Much research and experimental work has been done in the hope of finding a chemical method of controlling the weeds of onions. Sulfuric acid has been partly successful under favorable conditions. Sodium pentachlorophenate has been tried but has not generally been satisfactory. Flaming or burning seems to have considerable promise. Onion seeds are slow

Illinois takes lead in fighting TB with BCG

Illinois today became the nation's leader in a drive to eliminate tuberculosis through use of the vaccine, BCG.

The state has authorized construction of the Institution for Tuberculosis Prevention on the Chicago medical campus of the University of Ill. It will be run in close co-operation with the Chicago Municipal Sanitarium.

There scientists will do research on TB prevention and manufacture and distribute the preventive vaccine, BCG, for the nation.

Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, famed physiologist and vice president of the University of Ill. professional colleges and hospitals, said:

"If BCG is given every child to germinate. Most of the weeds of the onion field germinate rather quickly. The flame is applied to the surface when the weeds are from one to two inches tall, just before the onion seedlings emerge. There are several flame throwers on the market.

Powdered cyanamid applied directly over the rows of asparagus is reported from Michigan as giving excellent control of weeds. Oddly enough, the control of weeds in asparagus by the use of common salt was discontinued many years ago. This method is now being used on table beets. The salt improves the quality of the beets and gives some degree of weed control.

The much discussed 2-4-D is very effective in killing dandelions, buckhorn and plantain in lawns and golf courses, but it has no place in either the vegetable or flower garden.

Gas shortage on local farms is temporary

Manager C. H. Becker of the Illinois Farm Supply Company today advised farmers that the supply of gasoline available to wholesalers in the petroleum industry is at present insufficient to meet demand.

Becker said he believed the gasoline shortage was temporary and as far as Illinois farmers are concerned should become easier by the middle of August when there is a normal seasonal decline in the use of petroleum products on the farm. He attributed the enormous demand for petroleum products to heavy industrial usage, conversion of industry and homes from coal to the use of oil for fuel, and the exceptional demand of the late farming season. All of these events come at a time when consumption of gasoline in commercial trucks and passenger cars is at an all time high.

Illinois Farm Supply company, virtually all of whose business is the vaccinated group over a five-year period not a single case of TB developed while in the other group there were seven cases and two deaths.

dome with Ill. farmers, is finding it necessary, like most others in the petroleum business, to allocate supplies to its member service companies July and August, Becker said.

YOUR DENTAL I Q

(Contributed by the Committee on Dental Health Education of the Chicago Dental Society)

Question: Why is it imperative that dental cavities be extracted rather than filled? What effect on the system does this type of tooth have if allowed to remain?—V. M. C.

Answer: If a pulpless tooth can be satisfactorily treated so that it can be kept free from bacteria indefinitely by the use of a satisfactory filling, the tooth should never become a source of trouble. However, the treatment and filling of some molar root canals is so delicate and intricate that sometimes it is physically impossible, not matter how carefully done, to render the pulp canal and dentin completely sterile or to keep it so. If infected teeth are allowed to remain in the mouth, the primary infection may be carried by the blood stream to other parts of the body where it may infect other organs such as the eyes, heart, kidneys and joints. Since the majority of pulpless teeth are caused by dental decay, the best method of preventing infected pulps and preserving the vitality of the tooth is to prevent or at least completely remove decay when it first starts and fill the cavity with a suitable filling material. Send questions with self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Chicago Dental Society, 39 N. Michigan ave., Chicago 2, Ill.

Modern classic at Lake Zurich

The fifth production at the New Lake Zurich Playhouse is "Death Takes a Holiday." Written by Alberto Casella, the play has been specially adapted for the American stage by Walter Ferris. The playing dates for this show are Thursday through Sunday evenings at 8:45, July 24th to 27th.

In the role of Death will be William J. Harahan, whose performances this season have made him a favorite with the Playhouse audiences. Also supporting Mr. Harahan will be Penny Moran, Gerald E. McGonagill, and Enid Karper.

Miss Bella D. Itkin will direct "Death Takes a Holiday," with the Italian Castle setting by Leonor Travis.

People in the nearby vicinity are urged to attend Thursday and Sunday as the other nights are usually sold out in advance. Reservations can be made by phoning L. Z. 4441, or by writing the New Lake Zurich Playhouse, Lake Zurich, Ill.

Following this show will be "Holiday" by Phillip Barry, which will play Thursday through Sunday, July 31st to August 3rd.

Liquid storage of natural gas to save much space

A new method for storing natural gas in liquid form which will reduce storage space by more than 99.8% has been developed by L. F. Stutzman, assistant professor of chemical engineering and George H. Brown, instructor, at Northwestern University's Technological Institute. Under the method 800 cubic feet of natural gas may be contained in one cubic foot of storage space.

Through the use of refrigeration equipment and insulated tanks Prof. Stutzman and Brown were able to show that large storage tanks can be eliminated or used for additional storage so that a community will have an adequate supply of gas on hand at all times. The liquid gas may be returned to its gaseous state by reducing refrigeration and piping the gas off a storage tank and into gas mains.

The liquefaction permits the use and storage of natural gas from oil fields where until the present the gas has been burned off as it was piped out of the earth because of the danger of explosion and the harmful effect on workers and vegetation in oil-producing communities. Commercial enterprises long have sought a way of using natural gas which is present above almost all oil fields. It is now possible to conserve millions of cubic feet of gas which may be used in households and industry where previously it was dissipated by burning.

SUES FOR DAMAGES

Earl Claus has sued Robert W. Gooley in the Superior court for $6,000 damages each on two counts for injuries caused by a collision of their cars in Oostauville April 2. Both were driving in opposite directions on U. S. 20 near the St. Paul railroad subway. Gooley drove on the left side of the road and so caused the accident.

SPORTS OUT OF THE ADAM HAT

CASEY STENGEL, A GREAT NATIONAL LEAGUE OUTFIELDER, IN HIS DAY, HAD TWO SHOTS AT BIG LEAGUE MANAGER JOBS (WITH B'LYN AND BOSTON) BUT DIDN'T WIN ANY FLAGS. - BUT HE DID KEEP HIS EX-TEAM, THE GIANTS FROM A FLAG IN THE LAST GAME OF THE '34 SEASON.

IN 1923, CASEY STENGEL, WAS THE FIRST TO TIP HIS HAT AND A BIRD FLEW OUT.

ALWAYS A CLOWN, HE ONCE CAME TO BAT, TIPPED HIS HAT AND A BIRD FLEW OUT.

FOR THEM HIS 2 HOMERS PROLONGED THE WORLD SERIES TO 6 GAMES!

Weekly recipe

The achievement of every housewife is to be able to take simple foods and make them into delicious treats. Avoid the heat of the day and prepare Mocha Chocolate Mousse a day in advance in the cool of evening. It's one of my favorites—a rich, nutritious chocolate dessert, flavored with coffee. A nice change to serve.

Mocha Chocolate Mousse
1/2 lb. sweet chocolate
2 tbsp. strong coffee
1/4 cup powdered sugar
1/2 cup butter
6 eggs
Vanilla

Method: Melt the chocolate in the coffee in the top of a double boiler. Add powdered sugar and butter and stir. Separate the egg yolks from the whites. Beat the egg yolks well and pour the custard mixture over the egg yolks. Beat the egg whites until stiff and in peaks. Fold custard into the egg whites. Add vanilla. Chill.

Lesson in English

by W. L. GORDON

Words often misused

Do not say, "What business have they to interfere?" Say, "What right have they to interfere?"

Do not confuse glacier (a field or body of ice) with glazier (one whose business is to set glass in window frames, etc.)

Do not say, "You went back on your promise." Say, "You failed to keep your promise."

Use former when referring to the first of two persons or things previously mentioned, but not when more than two have been mentioned. In the latter case say first, first mentioned, or first named.

Do not say, "I am glad you arrived safely." Say, "I am glad you arrived safe."

Do not confuse later (comparative of late) with latter (of two things, being the one mentioned second.)

Words often mispronounced
Patron, patronize. Pronounce first syllable of both noun and verb as pay, a as in ate.

Secretive. Pronounce with accent on second syllable, e as in be, and not with accent on first syllable, as is often heard.

Divorce. Pronounce the i as in did, not as in die.

Harem. The preferred pronunciation is hay-rem.

Anesthesia. Pronounce an-es-the-zia, first e as in less, second e as in me, accent third syllable.

Philanthropic. Pronounce fil-an-throp-ik, both i's as in it, a as in an, o as in of, accent third syllable.

Words often misspelled

Ectasy; not ex, nor cy. Tranquil; one l, tranquility; two l's. Philippines; one l, three p's. Frolic; ic. Frolicking; ick. Unkempt (not kept; neglected). Unkempt (not combed, applying only to the hair). Ceiling; ei, not ie, nor ee.

Word study
"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Actuate; to incite to action; arouse. "A man's opinion of danger varies . . . and he is actuated by considerations which he dares not avow." — Smollett.

Substantiate; to establish the existence or truth of by proof or evidence. "Historians substantiate what I have been telling you."

Cataclysm; an overwhelming flood. (Pronounce kat-a-kli-z'm, first a as in rat, second a unstressed, i as in it, accent first syllable). "The people were unprepared for this sudden cataclysm."

Bibliophile; one who sells books, especially rare or curious books. (Pronounce both i's as in it, both o's as in no, principal accent on first syllable, secondary accent on last syllable.)

Proneness; inclination of mind, heart, or temper; disposition; as, "proneness to self-gratification."

Won't be long before they ask to see the cow!

A milkman's life is never dull, and many milkmen have learned not to be surprised by any sort of request. Here are copies of notes actually left by customers:

Dear Milkman: When you leave my milk, knock on my bedroom window and wake me, I want you to give me a hand to turn the mattress. P. S. Hope you don't mind.

Dear Milkman: My back door is open. Please put milk in refrigerator, get money out of cup in drawer and leave change on kitchen table in pennies because we want to play bingo tonight.

Dear Milkman: When you leave the milk please put coal on the furnace, let the dog out,

Vandals destroy old wagon

A traditional landmark of the Kindale farms was completely demolished by vandals, reported S. S. Stenerson, farm operator. The landmark, an old-fashioned buggy type wagon, which had been situated on the property for 23 years, was totally destroyed and sections strewn along the highway.

The matter was reported to the Lake county police, who have assured owners that the district will be more carefully patrolled.

Kindale farms is located on route 59 between Cuba road and route 22, north of Barrington.

and put the newspapers inside the screen door. P. S. Don't leave any milk.
